

TWENTY-FOURTH (24th)
ONASSIS FELLOWSHIPS PROGRAM FOR INTERNATIONAL SCHOLARS
ACADEMIC YEAR: OCTOBER 2018 - SEPTEMBER 2019

DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSION OF CANDIDATURES: WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 28th, 2018

The Foundation announces the twenty-fourth (24th) annual Fellowships Program for International Scholars starting on October 1st, 2018, addressed to non-Greek nationals, University Professors of all levels, Postdoctoral Researchers and Ph.D. Candidates.

ACADEMIC FIELD

The Program covers the following academic fields:

A) Humanities: (*)

Philology	Literature
Linguistics	History
Archaeology	Philosophy
Educational Studies	Psychology

(*) in the academic field of Humanities, the Foundation envisages that one (1) fellowship in each category will be specifically awarded to a researcher who wants to work closely with the Cavafy Archive towards producing innovative research on C.P. Cavafy. In this manner, the Onassis Foundation expressly supports and facilitates academic research and places the Cavafy Archive itself right at the heart of academic scholarship. Furthermore, it is envisaged that one (1) fellowship will be awarded to works that correlate with the prized research collections of the Onassis Library. Further information concerning the content of the Onassis Library can be found here: www.onassislibrary.gr.

B) Social Sciences

Political Science	Sociology
International and European Studies	Social Policy

NOTE: Law is not included

C) Economics/Finance:

Maritime Studies	Finance
Public Finance

D) Arts: (only Theoretic Studies, artists are not included)

Art History	Visual Arts
Music	Dance
Theatre	Photography
Film Studies	New Media
Cultural management

NOTE: The consideration of an eventual interdisciplinary or multidisciplinary approach/dimension for the proposed research would be highly appreciated

It should be stressed that scholarships Category D and E will be awarded in priority to those who explicitly declare that they have arrangements to deliver courses/seminars in the specific field of their research by participating in a teaching (or research) program at a Public Greek University during their stay in Greece for a minimum of eight [8] hours per month. The said courses and/or seminars will be organized by the Onassis Foundation Department for International Fellowships Scholarships in collaboration with the relevant University Department.

GENERAL CONDITIONS OF PARTICIPATION

The Program covers scholarly research in Greece only and in the fields stated above.

1. Eligible to participate are the following candidates:

a) Persons of non-Greek descent

b) Cypriot citizens are also eligible to apply for Category D and E fellowship only, provided they permanently reside and work outside Greece

c) Persons of Greek descent (second generation and on) are also eligible to apply for a fellowship or scholarship, provided they permanently reside and work abroad or currently study in foreign Universities

d) Category D and E also applies to Scholars of Greek descent or citizenship provided they have a professional academic career of at least ten (10) years in a University or Research Institute abroad

e) The above mentioned clarification (d) also applies to Ph.D. candidates of Greek descent or citizenship, who pursue post-graduate studies outside of Greece (Category C – please see below), have conducted their high school studies and have obtained a degree outside Greece and permanently reside outside Greece for more than fifteen (15) years

2. Former Fellowship Recipients of the Foundation can re-apply for a fellowship only if five (5) years have elapsed since their previous fellowship scholarship.

3. Former Fellowship Recipients of the Foundation who have twice received a fellowship cannot apply again to the Onassis Fellowships Program for International Scholars.

4. No extension of the duration of the fellowship beyond the period mentioned in this announcement for each category will be permitted.

5. It is not possible to postpone or defer the fellowship to a later academic year.

6. The decision to authorize each application for a fellowship or scholarship is left to the absolute discretion of the Board of Directors of the Foundation. The Board takes into account the recommendations of the Foundation's Scientific Committee, which is selected by the Board, but is not bound by these recommendations. Furthermore, the Board of Directors can either approve or reject an application without communicating the rationale. All meetings of the Board and all recommendations of the Committee are confidential and under no circumstances will they be communicated to the applicants. The submission of an application equals acceptance of all the conditions of the Announcement.
